

Constitution of the Engineering Science Student Society
of
Simon Fraser University

Amended March 8, 2019

Ratified by ESSS AGM: July 19, 2019

Ratified by SFSS: August 22, 2019

Title I: Constitution of the Engineering Science Student Society

Article 1 Definition of the Society

Section 1 Name

1.1 The official name of the Departmental Student Union for Engineering Science at Simon Fraser University shall be the “Engineering Science Student Society”, hereinafter referred to as the ESSS.

Section 2 Purpose

2.1 The Purpose of the ESSS shall be:

- I. To promote school spirit.
- II. To improve the quality of education in conjunction with the School of Engineering Science at Simon Fraser University.
- III. To develop members’ interests in extra-curricular activities.
- IV. To take an active role in promoting engineering as a profession.
- V. To maintain communications with internal and external engineering groups, and professional engineering associations.
- VI. To aid members in developing organizational and leadership skills.
- VII. To mediate with all groups outside of the ESSS including the SFSS, Engineering Science Administration, and University Administration as required with the best interests of our membership.
- VIII. To promote communication between graduate and undergraduate students.
- IX. To support initiatives of student groups within the engineering community